Article 6

Admission Exam

- 1) The admission exam procedure is ruled by the committee appointed by the dean of the Faculty.
- 2) The admission exam consists of two parts: a portfolio assessment, and an interview. The first part of the admission exam takes place on 21 June 2022. The second part (the interview) takes place on 28 June 2022 (alternative date of the admission exam is set for 30 June 2022).
- 3) The portfolio assessment will be held without the presence of the applicant. This part of the admission exam is point-based. The maximum number of points is 30 (increments of 1 point). The minimum number of points required to pass the first part of the admission exam is 5 points.
- 4) Invitation to the second part of the entrance examination is sent to applicants at least 5 days before the event. The invitation is sent electronically to the e-mail address provided in the application.
- 5) The interview is conducted online in English. During the interview the committee will assess the suitability of the applicant for the admission to the FAAD and will focus on the following criteria:
 - a) applicants' general orientation in the field of study (max. 10 points);
 - b) motivation for study and ability to discuss a specific issue related to the applicants' area of interest (max. 10 points);
 - c) English language proficiency (max. 10 points).

The minimum number of points required to pass the second part of the admission exam is 15 points.

- 6) The interview will take place online in the MS Teams environment. The applicant is obliged to have a communication device (PC, laptop, tablet, etc.) with a stable connection to the Internet, a microphone, headphones / speaker and a camera on which MS Teams will work. The applicant is obliged to have the camera turned on during the entire interview while the camera will be viewing him/her. The interview will not be recorded. The applicant's identity will be verified at the beginning of the interview. The applicant will show his*her identity document at the camera. A screenshot containing the applicant's personal data will be treated in accordance with the personal data protection legislation. The screenshot will be deleted from the BUT information system no later than 30 November 2022.

- 7) Taking the second part of the admission exam in an alternative date may be permitted only for serious and documented medical or other critical reasons. In the event that the candidate is unable to attend the admission interview for serious reasons, he/she will apologize in writing to the Dean through the study department on or before the set date of the admission exam. The Dean decides on the alternative date examination as set in Paragraph 2 of this section. The Dean's decision is final, and the candidate is notified electronically via the e-mail address specified in the e-application. At the same time, the Dean's decision is made available to the applicant in the e-application.
- 8) Only those applicants who have successfully passed the admission exam and have been adequately ranked in accordance with to Article 3 may be admitted to study. If more than one applicant is ranked last with the same number of points, all such applicants shall be admitted to study.

Article 7 Admission to Study

- 1) The applicant will receive the dean's decision on admission to study within 30 days of verifying that all the conditions of the admission procedure were met.
- 2) It is possible to make an appeal against the decision within 30 days of its notification.

Article 8 Final Provisions

- 1) The applicant has the right to inspect the admission exam file from the date of notification of the decision during the office hours of the study department. The Faculty may instead provide the applicant with a copy of the file.
- 2) This directive has been approved in accordance with Section 27 (1)(e) of the Act by the Academic Senate of the Faculty on 13 April 2022.
